

2009 Legislative Session

Representative Janet Adkins and PBA's SLEO Chapter Vice President Chris Kirkland review amendments to the state budget.

Former Senator Rod Smith (second from right) talks shop with PBA's Treasurer Ernie George, Executive Director David Murrell, and Lobbyist Don Teems.

Michelle Shopp, daughter of PBA's Business and Services Director Al Shopp, hard at work in the Clerk's Office of the Florida House of Representatives.

Representative Paige Kreegel (center) celebrating a successful committee vote on Bill of Rights legislation with PBA.

PBA President John Rivera voices his strong support to reform the Bill of Rights, as president of the PBA and a Commissioner on the CJSTC.

Representative Luis Garcia (right) talks about funding for public safety officers' salaries with SLEO Chapter President Matt Tyre (left) and SCO Chapter President Jim Baiardi.

PBA Treasurer Ernie George offers his unique perspective as a CJSTC Commissioner for adding reforms to the Bill of Rights.

(L-R): Northwest Chapter PBA Vice President for Escambia Corrections Bruce Polk, SCO Chapter President Jim Baiardi, Representative Brad Drake, and Northwest Chapter Senior Vice President Alan Miller.

PBA Deputy Executive Director Matt Puckett testifying in support of increasing salaries for state law enforcement, correctional and correctional probation officers.

Central Florida Chapter's Senior Vice President Marty Premo (left) and President John Park (right) meet with Representative Eric Eisnaugle (center).

Senator Nan Rich meets with Broward County PBA.

PBA Treasurer Ernie George has a spirited discussion with a member of Hillsborough County's top brass about the need to reform the Bill of Rights.

PBA Chapter Presidents work with Representative Will Snyder (seated) on state budget issues.

PBA's Senior Vice President Dick Brickman (center) also has a spirited discussion with members of Orange County's top brass about the need to reform the Bill of Rights.